Dedication

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they say its beauty,
"It shall never know decay;
Great is thy skill, O Builder!
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A Teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing effort,
None knew of her wonderous plan,
For the temple the Teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the Builder's temple,
Crumpled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar;
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the Teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

Dedication

A decade of dedication

Horace Mann once wrote, "A human being is not, in any proper sense, a human being till he is educated."

The greatest gift in a man's life is an education. There is no substitute for the knowledge received from the teacher who has dedicated ten years of her life to prepare and instruct Bourgade students. We, who have been priviledged to receive such an education, realize that Mrs. Patricia Scully has been a vital part of our academic study.

She is a familiar sight to the graduating seniors of "1982," as well as the past and future graduates.

We students have grown to admire her long and late work days for the interest of her students; her strictness in class, which has won her respect, the kind of respect that recognizes her ability to bend a little when the occasion demands it; and her kindness and interest in personal problems which has always been appreciated.

It is with deep appreciation and full recognition of all that she has meant to us, that we sincerely dedicated this annual to you, Mrs. Patricia Scully.

Bittersweet memories

Our four years at Bourgade — what can we say? Sure we'll miss it, but we have to go on. We have such memories — is that all they are? Just memories? No. We'll carry thoughts of food fights and pep assemblies with us forever. Leaving will be bittersweet. The sweet anticipation of a new life style, a new school, a new career, new friends — new friends? What about our old ones? The bitter part. We will all go our separate ways. Most we will never see again; we wish them luck, but others we will see grow old. We will reminisce about lazy days and lots of homework, teachers and classes, fads and fashions. We will never forget Bourgade. We may be happy to leave, but we are sure glad that we came.

I didn't think so

Sister Norma Jean Turner, the Junior Class advisor, theorized the prosperity of the Juniors, "Much of their success is due to enthusiastic people who were willing to do things behind the scenes. This class is a friendly class and very pleasant to work with." She summed up the success of the class by referring to the many activities and fund-raisers they accomplished. During the spirit weeks sponsored by various classes and clubs, the Juniors came alive with pep rallies in the quad, coteries at lunch, and original decor for themselves, and colorful posters for the school. In preparation for the Fashion Show and the Prom, the Juniors sold Tootsie Rolls, stationery and, for Halloween, pumpkin candy plates. By taking the initiative to participate and sponsor various activities throughout the year, the Juniors gained valuable responsibility that prepared them for their Senior year.

Sophomores focus on fund-raising

As they look towards their Junior year, the Sophomores centered on raising money. Their major fund-raising projects included a Rice Crispies Treat sale, a Choo Choo Charlie sale, the annual Saint Patrick's Day dance. The Sophomores also took the initiative to sponsor two special events: the annual auction, and an ethnic dinner featuring all nationalities.

Well Melissa

This year, the Sophomore activities were limited but successful. Their largest fund raiser of the year was a raffle in which the prizes were a trip to Mazatlan, won by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Trejo, and a JVC Stereo, won by Mr. Jann Contento. Part of the proceeds went to the Auction.

The Sophomores also held a International Christmas Buffet in the Gym, students and parents were invited to bring their favorite food from the country their ancestors originated from. Some of the students also made banners saying Merry Christmas in foreign languages.

about all

Freshman year: rewarding . . . and demanding

The Freshmen found the onset of their high school years a busy and demanding epoch. Some of their major projects included a canned food drive, bake sales, and the annual Freshmen/Parent Mass and Breakfast. Although there was plenty of learning to do and adjustments to make, the year was not without its rewards. By showing their continuing vivacity, the Freshmen won the spirit stick numerous times and became a part of the Bourgade family. Many will agree with Mr. Radigan when he stressed that the greatest reward that the Freshmen gain is "the positive step forward to adulthood blended with a Christian perspective."

Activities unite frosh

This school year at Bourgade will always be remembered by freshmen as a great experience. They made new friends and became a close class in their first year. Their activities helped them to learn and grow in the Bourgade Community.

The Freshman-Senior Picnic took place on September 26 at Encanto Park. More than sixty freshmen participated. Games were played all day. A barbeque lunch was served, and the day closed with a prayer by Mrs. Mascarelli. When asked how he felt about the event, Mr. Radigan, the Freshman Class Moderator, replied, "It was a great day. This was a good warming-up experience for the freshmen."

Among other activities, the Freshman Class sponsored a bake sale in mid October which drew good profits. Also in October, the freshmen and their parents had the annual freshman breakfast in Madonna Hall.

1) Freshmen Jeff Sarna, Victor DiGiovine and Tom McCracken mimic a cheer routine. 2) Bourgade freshmen learn the Bourgade routine of waiting for the bus after school.

Frosh class unique

Just before Christmas time, the Freshman Class held a canned food drive. Over two hundred items were donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. FACULTY

The Bourgade mechanism consists of many parts, all of which are essential to the growth and development of the students. These parts include teachers, coaches, administrators, staff and maintenance personnel. Unlike other machines, the Bourgade machine does not run for monetary or personal gain. The motive behind this great institution is dedication. This dedication is shown in all the extras that go on around Bourgade. The administrators have set down new and better policies that have made the machine stronger. Many teachers voluntarily play more than one function in the machine, taking on all kinds of responsibilities and challenges. The staff is the backbone that keeps the system erect. The maintenance crew enhances the beauty of the machine and keeps all the parts in working order.

We would like to introduce the fantastic people who compose the Bourgade Machine.

Two veteran staff members retire

MRS. BURKE: END OF 17 YEARS SERVICE

Mrs. Burke, attendance secretary, retired April 30th, ending seventeen years of service. Mrs. Burke was honored at a luncheon banquet May 3 at Emiliano's Restaurante. At the banquet, Mr. Campbell spoke for the faculty in praising Mrs. Burke for her hard work. Speaking for the administration, Father Fetters tried to give the audience an idea of the quantity of work Mrs. Burke accomplished over the years. Student Government President Joe Cosper thanked Mrs. Burke for her dedication. The luncheon ended on an optimistic note with Mrs. Burke promising to return for visits.

1) In a by-gone year, Mrs. Hernandez shows Mrs. Burke how to operate a then new typewriter. 2) Mr. Vales discusses Mrs. Burke's long career with Mrs. Fraley during the luncheon at Emiliano's. 3) Mrs. Burke is tickled with the good-bye gifts she received from the faculty. 4) Father Fetters and Mrs. Swaufield pose with retiring Mr. Swauffield and other long-serving members of the Bourgade staff — Mrs. Cordova, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Vales. 5) Student Government Vice-President Pat Donnelly represents the student body in expressing gratitude and wishing good luck to Mr. Swaufield. 6) In by-gone days, Mr. Swaufield repairs electrical wiring. 7) Father Fetters presents Mr. Swaufield with an appreciation bell and plaque at his retirement banquet.

MR. SWAUFIELD: LAST ORIGINAL

At the end of the first semester, Mr. Swaufield retired, ending a twenty year career at Bourgade. Mr. Swaufield who was head of the maintenance crew is the last of the original staff who opened Bourgade in 1962. During his career, Mr. Swaufield took care of all kinds of problems which fall under maintenance, from plumbing to irrigation. To recognize his dedication, Mr. Swaufield was honored at a banquet held in Madonna Hall. In attendance were the faculty, administration, a student representative, and Mrs. Swaufield. Mr. Swaufield was presented with various gifts to show Bourgade's appreciation. Mr. Swaufield remarked that he will miss the Bourgade community. Mr. Swaufield now plans to spend much of his time fishing and golfing.

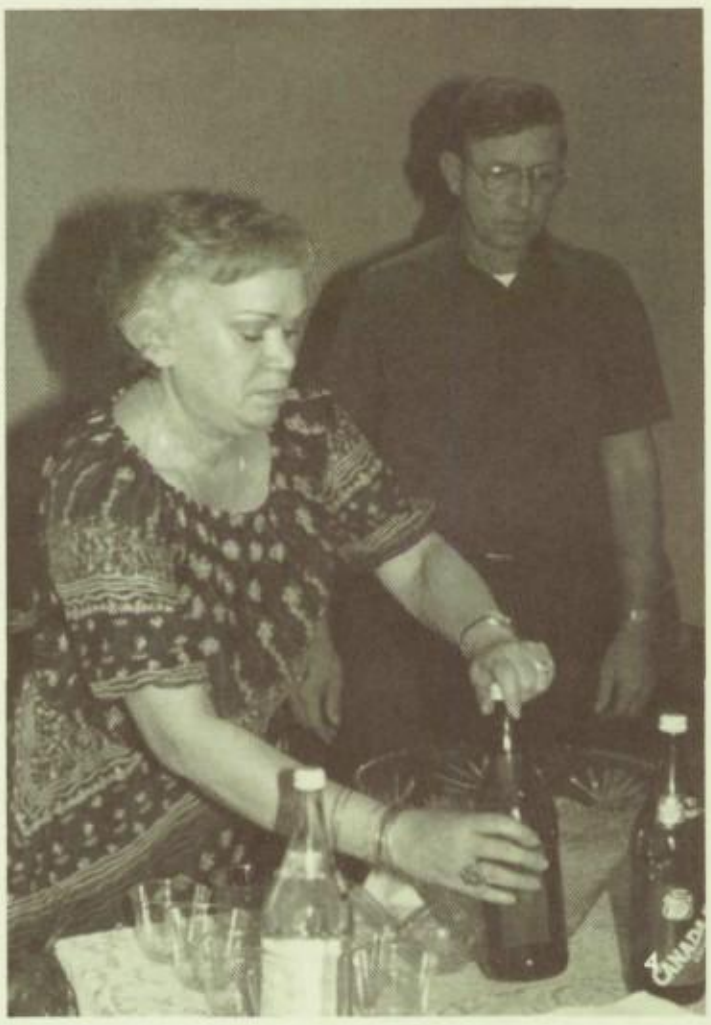
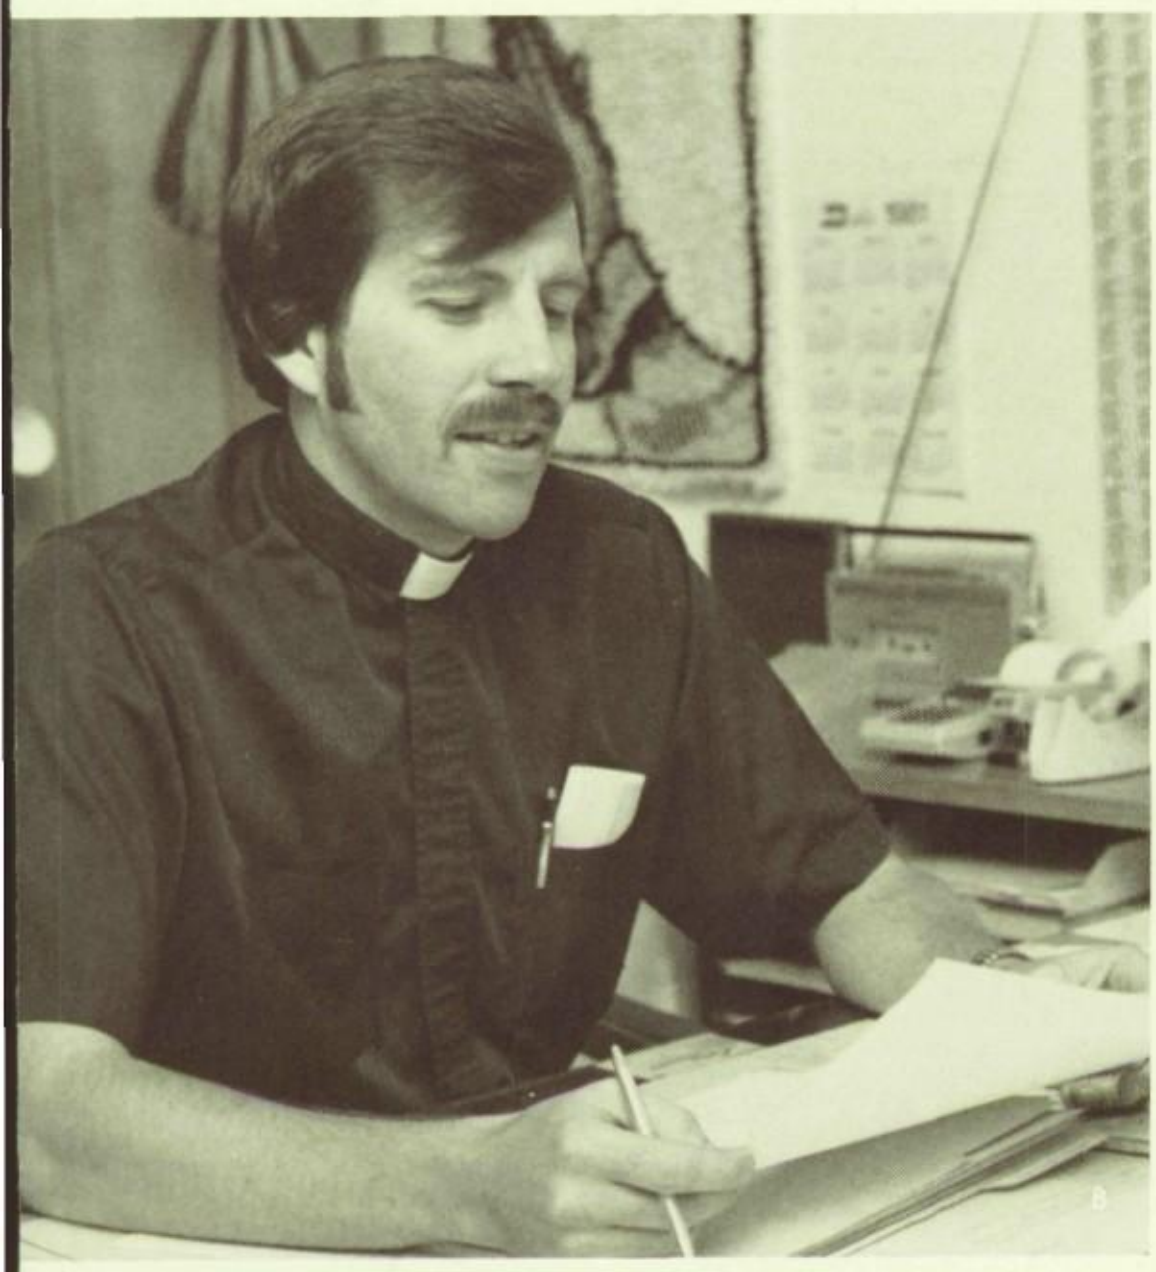
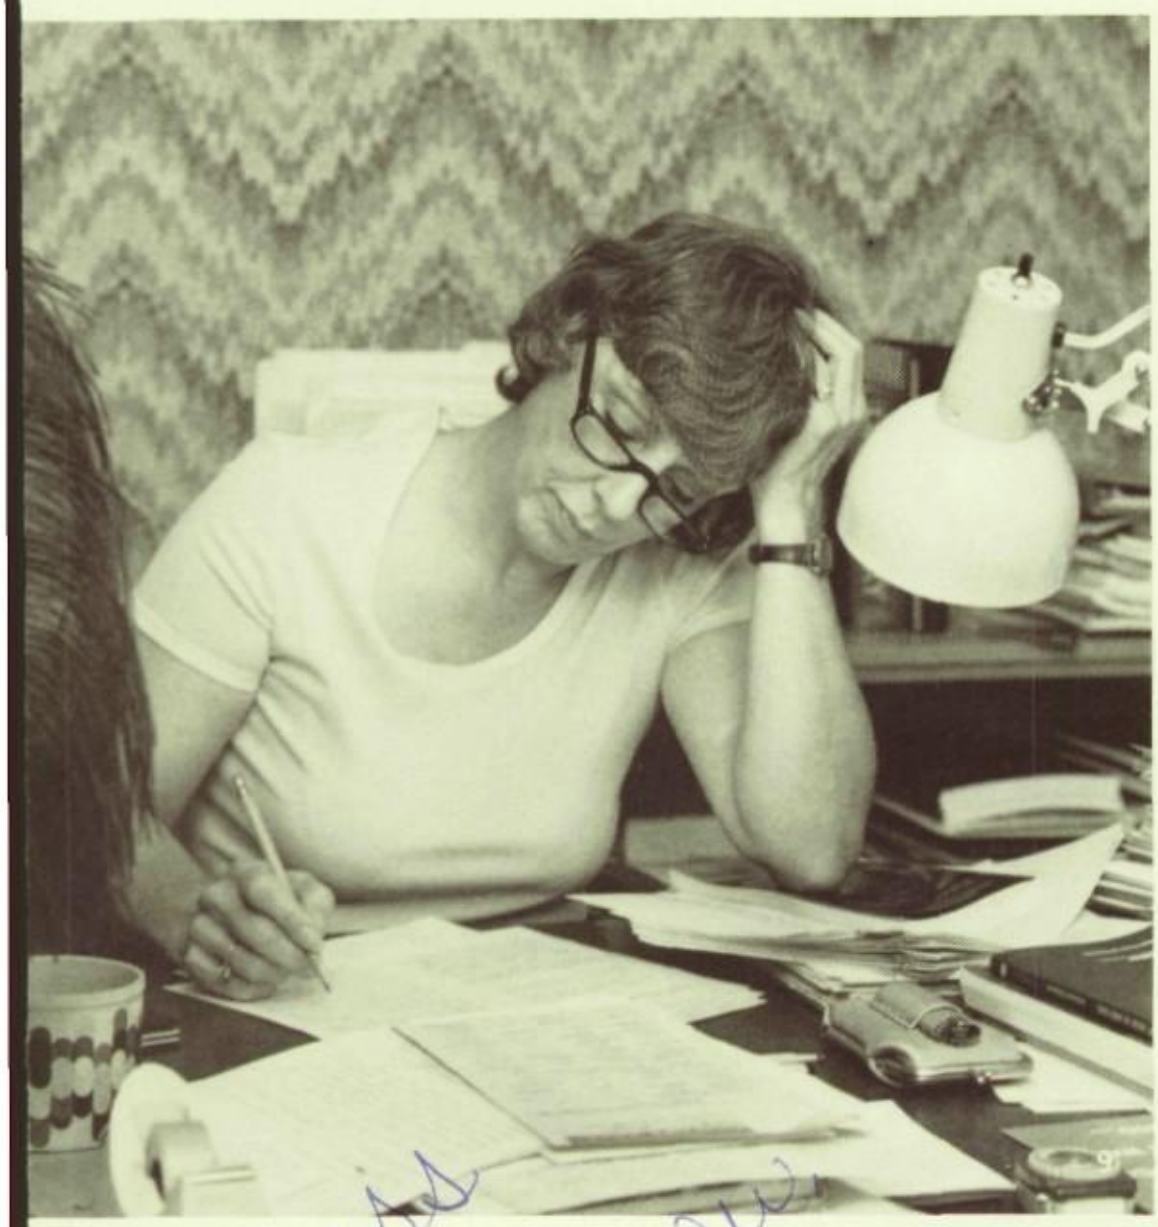
1) Father Dan Conditt portrays a forest ranger in the faculty's contribution to Winterfest. 2) Mrs. Salahub chuckles at an unusual French translation. 3) Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Tunnell and Mr. Lizotte relax at the faculty Christmas party. 4) Mr. Vales waits patiently for Mrs. Hernandez to refill the punch at the faculty Christmas party. 5) Father Fetters digs through faculty gifts to see what St. Nick left for him. 6) Mrs. Palsma, Mr. Kiszczak, Mr. Swaufield and Mr. Andrews enjoy dinner at a faculty get-together. 7) Sister Norma patiently expresses her dissapproval after a junior class meeting. 8) Father Fetters amusedly reacts to some reasons seniors gave stating why they deserved a privilege. 9) Mrs. Scully busily prepares for an Academic Council meeting amid her well-organized desk.





Father Don Fetters, principal

Father Don Fetters has been at Bourgade for six years. During this time he has taught English and government, coached volleyball and drama, moderated the Ski Club, headed Campus Ministry, and for the past two and a half years has been principal. Father Fetters is a member of the Holy Cross Community. He received a baccalaureate degree from Notre Dame, minoring in English and majoring in Political Science; he also has a master's degree in Theology from Notre Dame. Father Fetters feels Bourgade's atmosphere of concerned people is special; he was especially impressed with the Student Body's response to the Muscular Dystrophy Dance-A-Thon. From Bourgade Father Fetters would like graduates to obtain a better sense for being concerned and responsible for the people around them and the ability to respond to other people's needs.



Mrs. Patricia Scully, vice-principal

Mrs. Patricia Scully came to Bourgade in 1972. Since then, she has taught every level of English, held the positions of English Department Chairperson, Yearbook Advisor, Quill & Scroll Advisor, coached swimming and powder puff, moderated the Mat Maids and assisted the Sophomore class. For the past two years, Mrs. Scully has been Vice-Principal. As Vice-Principal, she was chairperson of the Academic Council and Curriculum Board. Mrs. Scully remarked she finds teaching rewarding and that her most rewarding experience is every year when her Senior Analysis class brings in their first semester project, a multi-media expression of an abstract term. This is the day when she sees "the 'I can't become an 'I did'." Mrs. Scully enjoys back-packing, camping, fishing, kniting, sewing and reading. She divulged, "In my spare time, I teach and, in general, make like a mother and grandmother!"

I guess you know

Father Dan Conditt

This is Father Dan's first year at Bourgade. He teaches three classes of Religion 1-2 and works as the Community Service Coordinator. He also is a part of the Campus Ministry team. Fr. Dan's personal philosophy is that "our vocation in life is to be the best-who-we-are." He hopes that all students can grow to love the best-who-we-are.

Father O'Neill

Fr. O'Neill was the principal during the school year of 1979-1980. But, unfortunately, he had to leave at the end of the first semester due to health reasons. He returned this year and now is one of the Guidance Counselors. His job includes being in charge of College and Career counseling, Course scheduling and Testing. The one thing that Father would like to stress to his students this year is "Self-Reliance, and the acceptance of challenges."

Father Thomas Markos

Father Markos is the head of the Guidance Department, which entails the guidance of personal and educational development of all the students at Bourgade. This is his first year here at Bourgade. Fr. Markos' impressions of this year's students is one that "the students have a 'never say die' approach in their activities."

Mrs. Mary Palsma

Mrs. Palsma has been at Bourgade for three years part-time and two years full-time. She teaches math, English and typing. She is also Student Government Moderator. The one thing she would stress to her students is "Study first-but have time for friends and fun too."

Mr. Jann Contento

This is Mr. Contento's first year at Bourgade. He teaches General Business, typing and athletic conditioning. Mr. Contento is also Assistant Dean of Students. He coaches Varsity and J.V. football and is assistant coach for the track team. He is the advisor for the Youth for Life program. When asked who or what inspired him in his vocation, he stated, "Probably my education in a Catholic school system and the fact that I enjoy working with young people."

Mrs. Anne Tunnell

Mrs. Tunnell has been affiliated with Bourgade for seven years. Besides teaching Algebra 1-2 and accelerated geometry, she is Dean of Students. This job includes taking care of detentions, jugs, probation, suspension, and attendance. When asked how she felt about Bourgade's spirit, she stated, "There seems to be more participation and interest shown by more students."

Sr. Norma Jean Turner

Sr. Norma has been affiliated with Bourgade for four years. Her positions this year are Junior class Moderator, overseer of Masses and a member of the Campus Ministry team. She teaches junior religion and Latin. She would like to stress to her students that, "each one is important to someone and that each student is cared about."

Mr. James Walker

Mr. Walker has been here for eleven years. He teaches biology and is the Head of the Science Department. He also is the Athletic Director for the school. This job includes scheduling games, scheduling umpires for home games, being in charge of transportation to and from away games, and budgeting the money for all sports programs.

like just always.

Mrs. Mary Lou Cordova

Mrs. Cordova has been associated with Bourgade for seventeen years. She teaches Spanish 1-2 and 3-4. She also is on the Academic Council and is in charge of the Spanish Club. She is the Head of the Foreign Language Department. The one thing she would like to stress to her students is "To realize the dedication and appreciate the excellent Bourgade Faculty."

Mr. Jim Davis

Mr. Davis has just started teaching at Bourgade this year. He teaches Frosh Boys P.E. and recreational P.E. Mr. Davis is the Head Varsity football and baseball coach. Mr. Davis' most memorable teaching experience was winning homecoming. His personal philosophy is "Winning is not a sometime thing, You don't win once in-a-while. You do things right all the time in everything you do." Mr. Davis is also known for his famous quote, "Hey, Big Guy, You're History."

Mr. Larry Dukerich

Mr. Dukerich teaches senior advanced math, chemistry, Accelerated Algebra 3-4, and I.P.S. He is the Head Coach of track and volleyball. When asked what he would like to see in the yearbook, he stated, "I would like to see more photos as always, especially of girls sports."

Miss Monica Heath

Miss Heath teaches freshman English and Newspaper. She is the Advisor for the BOURGADE FLYER. Miss Heath said she would like to see more pictures of all the teachers and students in the 1981-'82 yearbook.

Mrs. Alice Jacques

Mrs. Jacques previously taught at Bourgade for two years in 1969 and '70. She returned in the spring of '81. She teaches two classes of American Government, two classes of American History, and one class of World History. When asked how she felt about her students this year, she replied, "I am very impressed with many of my students. They seem to realize the importance of one's education and they value it."

Mrs. Dolores Meier

Mrs. Meier has been teaching at Bourgade for eleven years. She teaches home economics and consumer ed. She also is on the Academic Council. Mrs. Meier's most memorable teaching experience is "Having students return and tell me what their most worthwhile learning experience has been."

Mr. David Lizotte

Mr. Lizotte has been at Bourgade for one year. He teaches English 5-6, speech, and Freshman English Analysis. He also is Assistant Drama Director. The one thing Mr. Lizotte would like to change at Bourgade is "The attitude of students who want to vegitate through school."

Mrs. Lynn Mascarelli

Mrs. Mascarelli teaches senior religion and art. She is the Department Head for Religion. She hopes to start a horticulture club as an extension of the art classes to help beautify the campus.

Mr. Thomas Campbell

Mr. Campell has taught here for sixteen years. He teaches drafting and American history. Mr. Campbell's personal philosophy of life is "Don't waste a minute. You only will have one chance on this earth."

Mrs. Fraley

This is Mrs. Fraley's first year at Bourgade. She teaches general math, intro. to algebra and accelerated algebra. The one thing she would like to stress to her students is "Being a Christian is living according to God's word."

Mrs. Moore has been affiliated with Bourgade for six years. She is the sponsor for Matmaids; Pom; Freshman, J.V., and Varsity Cheer.

Mrs. Moore recalls one of her funniest teaching experiences when the class of 81' decided to send goldfish up in a rocket. Channel 5 covered the event and they showed a close-up of the squished goldfish on the tennis court.

Mr. Michael Radigan

This is Mr. Radigan's first year at Bourgade. He graduated from Notre Dame and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English. Mr. Radigan stresses to his students, "Be aware of what's happening; build for your future."

Sr. Frances Wetzel, O.P.

Sr. Frances has been at Bourgade for six years. Her positions include Department Head for Business Education and Faculty Sponsor for NHS. Sr. Frances' personal philosophy is "Jesus Christ will always be your very best friend. Be true to him and to yourself."

Mrs. Nadine Salahub

Mrs. Salahub has been associated with Bourgade for two years. She teaches Spanish and French. She would like to impress upon her students "the importance of working together and having a positive attitude." Mrs. Salahub believes that the Student Body this year is more self-involved.

Mrs. Carol Williams

Mrs. Williams teaches senior and sophomore English. In her three years at Bourgade, she feels that the major change is the gym being built, which has raised the spirit with the help of the pep club. She would like to see the athletic teams win.

Mrs. Tamara Weninger

In Mrs. Weninger's fourteen years at Bourgade, she has taught speech and drama, French and German. The major change, to her, is becoming the Golden Eagles from the Blue Angels. She feels that the school has changed for the better. "The pendulum is swinging back for the better," Mrs. Weninger explained. "It is worth living if you can share, give your love to your fellow men, the love God gives you through other people."

Mr. Robert Vales

Mr. Vales has been a part of Bourgade for fourteen years. He teaches social studies and is Social Studies Department Head. Mr. Vales feels that Bourgade students differ from those of earlier years because about fourteen years ago 90% of the students played on teams; now they have jobs or other interests.

Mrs. Tymrak has been at Bourgade for almost a year. She teaches health, physical education and sophomore accelerated biology. Mrs. Tymrak maintained, "Students at Bourgade are some of the most talented and exciting people I've been involved with."

Mrs. Mary Sue Palazzolo

Mrs. Palazzolo's job entails teaching remedial reading, sophomore speech, and drama. To her students, she would like to emphasize, "teachers, students and administration are all human beings. Treat others as you yourself would like to be treated." Her advice to students who plan to go to college is "enjoy every minute and make the most of this wonderful educational experience."

Mrs. Harriet Peckover

Mrs. Peckover has been associated with Bourgade for two years. She is in charge of directing the band. She believes Bourgade needs more involvement with the band.

Mrs. Helen Burke

This is Mrs. Burke's seventeenth year at Bourgade. Her job is secretary and attendance. She would like to emphasize to the students "to be on time for their first period."

Mrs. Burke is from Evergreen Park, Illinois, and has lived in Arizona since 1953.

Mr. Marion Kiszczak

Mr. Kiszczak has been employed at Bourgade for about a year. He feels that the majority of the students are considerate. His duties include cleaning, repairing, and policing the grounds. Mr. Kiszczak likes his hours on the job. In comparison to the other places he has worked, he likes the friendly atmosphere at Bourgade.

Mr. Greg Chaffin

Mr. Chaffin has been at Bourgade since October. One of his biggest jobs is trying to fill the shoes of Dick Swaufield. In addition to being in charge of maintenance of the physical plant at Bourgade, Mr. Chaffin is a fulltime student earning a degree in Business Administration.

Mr. Arthur Andrews

Mr. Andrews has been working at Bourgade for one and a half years. His job involves groundskeeping. To make his job easier, he thinks the students should be more considerate to the custodians. He likes everything about his job and can find no faults.

Mrs. Becky Giver

Mrs. Giver has worked at Bourgade for nine years. Her job includes ordering food and seeing that food is prepared on time. The only thing she dislikes about her job is when the fryers act up and the students have to wait for french fries.

Mrs. Marge Kurth

Mrs. Kurth has been employed here for nine years. Her duties are making sandwiches, grilling burgers and whatever else needs to be done. The only fault with her job is the fryers. She thinks the lunch period needs to be increased about ten minutes.

Mrs. Linda Blanchard

Mrs. Blanchard has worked at Bourgade for two years. She takes care of all of the money that comes into Bourgade and all that goes out. To make her job easier, she would like to have a scheduled time to have students turn in their tuition. Students randomly handing in tuition really distracts her when she is working with other money. She thinks Bourgade is "head and shoulders above public high schools."

Mrs. Tina Hernandez

Mrs. Hernandez has been associated with Bourgade eight years. Her impression of Bourgade is that it is a fine school with a bunch of "nice" kids who will develop into "nice" adults. Her duties are taking care of all of the records and secretarial duties.

Mr. Dick Swaufield

Mr. Swaufield has been at Bourgade since it opened twenty years ago. At this time, the present classrooms were not even completed. His career at Bourgade has included almost everything from maintenance to busdriving. Mr. Swaufield maintains that no job was too difficult, and that for major repair jobs, outside companies were called in.

Mr. Swaufield retired January 29. He and his wife now plan on selling their home and traveling around the United States. Mr. Swaufield said he will be sorry to leave Bourgade, but now he can spend more time with his wife.

Journalists sponsor Bourgade's First Annual Academic Bowl

1) Pam Callender suggests an amusing answer to Cindy Callender and Paul Corroo to be considered as a response during the competition. 2) The opposing teams await the initial question in the first round of competition. The Bourgade team is made up of Hans Schacke, Art Kirschen, Mary Anne Kilfoyle, Sally Edmondson, Paul Corroo, Cindy Callender, and Pam Callender. The Seton team consists of Joe Carrera, not shown, Annmarie Arnone, Alexis Drosos, Lisa Gummel, Joe Adloch, Ken Walsh, and Renae Richardson, not shown. 3) Hans Schacke, Art Kirschen, Mary Anne Kilfoyle, and Sally Edmondson discuss the possibilities of a winning answer on paper before replying vocally. 4) Master of Ceremonies, Gary Josephson, rattles off questions to the participants as Chris Zagar and Linda Latos monitor the computer.

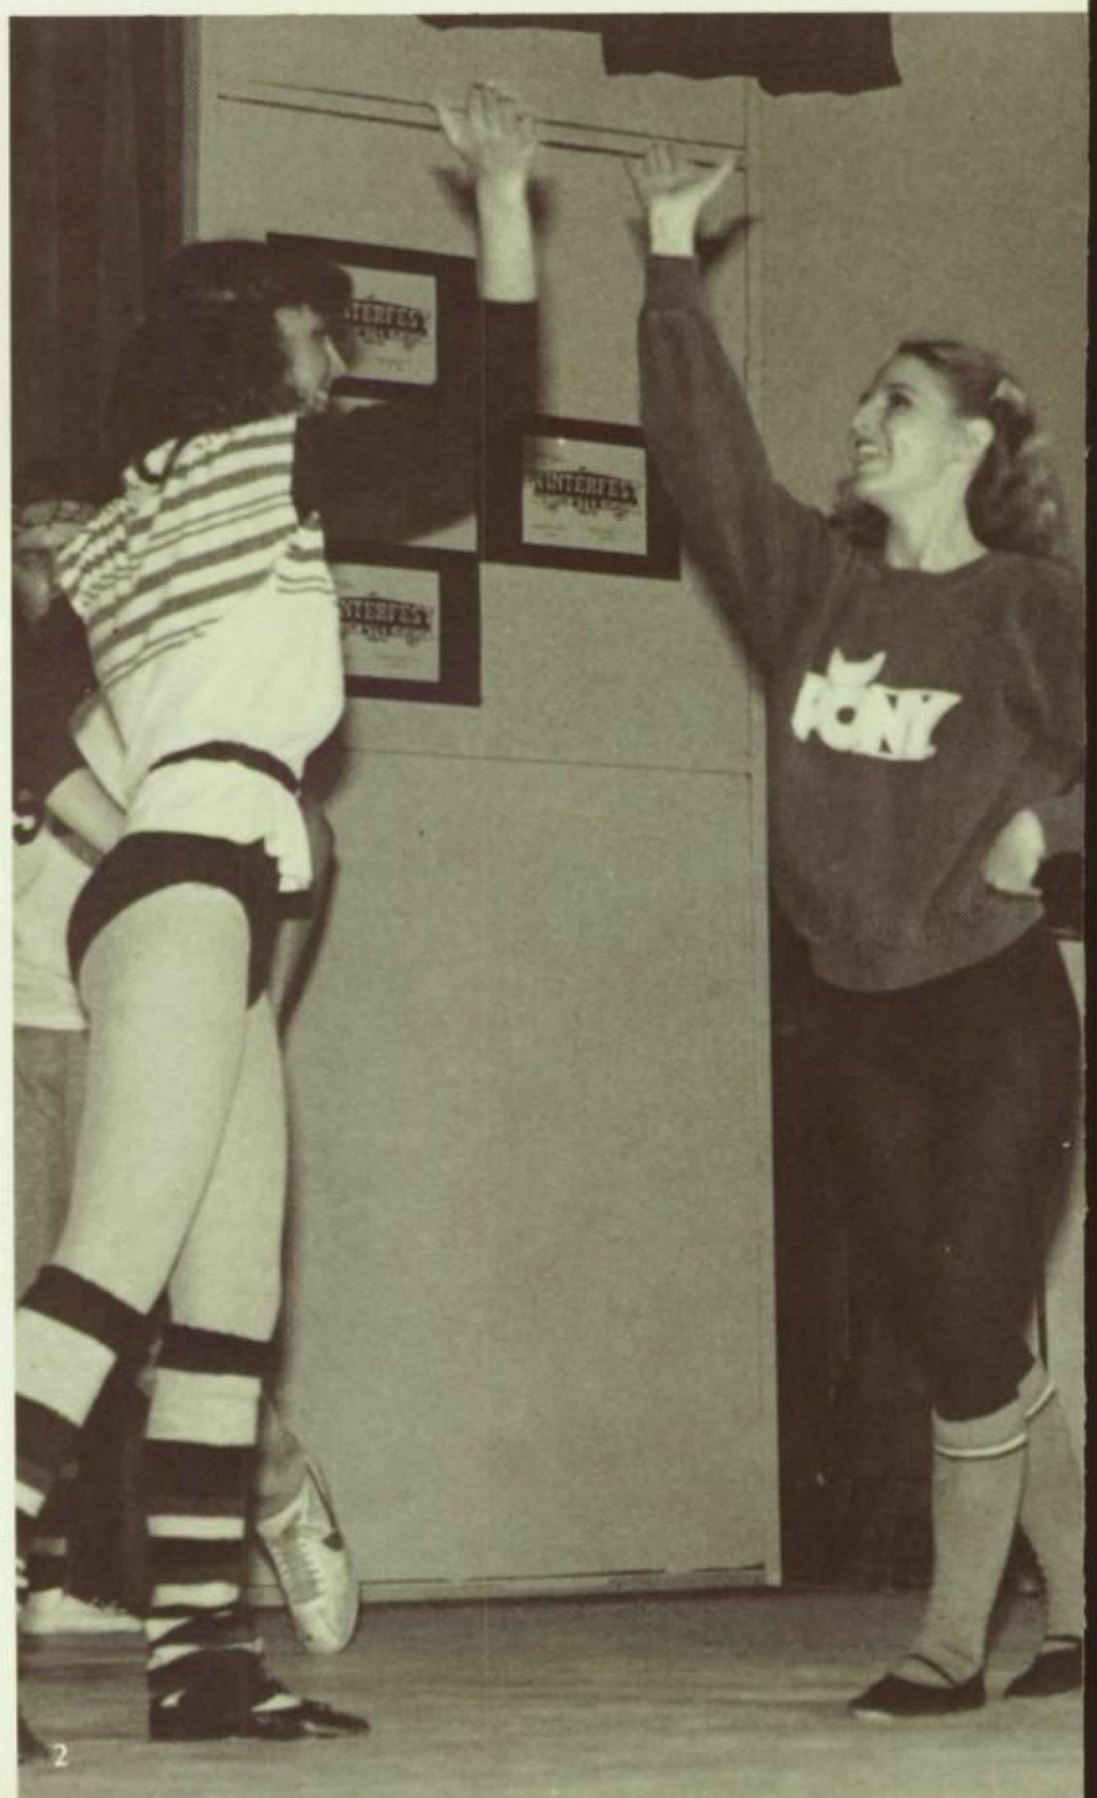
and hanging around with you

On March 10 the First Annual Academic Bowl was held in the Bourgade gym. It was sponsored by Bourgade's Quill and Scroll, the newspaper staff, and the yearbook staff. The participating teams were from Arizona Lutheran Academy, Bourgade, Phoenix Christian, and Seton. The teams answered a variety of questions submitted by a joint-school teacher committee headed by Mrs. Patt Scully. The teams finished in the following order: Seton, Arizona Lutheran Academy, Phoenix Christian, and Bourgade. Seton won the honor of keeping the traveling trophy for the 1982-83 school year.

Winterfest performs under the Big Top

The theme for Winterfest '81 was "Circus." Highlights of the show included various circus acts performed through pantomime, song, and dance. Contrary to the theme, much of the show was just based of the world of entertainment. The audience saw a young girl who had "dreams" of making it big, a group of teenagers on their way to "Fame," and a clumsy dancer trying to "Razzle Dazzle" the world.

Winterfest '81 truly showed the continuing talent of Bourgade students and teachers for providing top bill entertainment year after year.



1) Julie Estfan gives a snicker as she anticipates the punch line Cindy Callender is about to give the audience during Winterfest '81. 2) Carla DiGiovine and Wendy Davies dance their way to FAME! 3) Faculty members Sr. Norma Jean Turner and Mrs. Patt Scully search the woods in fear of a bear during "Teddy Bear Picnic." Mr. Jann Contento is about to make their fears a reality. 4) These students showed they had real talent when they were picked for a special dance troup for Winterfest '81. The group performed three spectacular dance numbers choreographed by Mr. David Lizotte. 5) What would a musical be without music? From left: David Joralmon, Mr. Ray Martinel, and Mr. Mick Olson. 6) Director of Winterfest '81, Mrs. Mary Sue Palozolo, shows stage crew member Andy Sykes that there is more to putting on a drama production than acting. 7) Steve Walter, Mike Chagnon, and Hans Schacke use facial expressions to display the different emotions that a clown can feel.

Mame arouses an enthusiastic crowd

The drama department's version of Mame, with fifty-two in its cast, successfully carried out a four night production. Mame was presented in Madonna Hall on March 25, 26, 27, and 28.

Mame, played by Monica VanDer Werf, followed the motto of "live, live, live" in all of her relationships with other people. In addition to the role of Mame, excellent performances were given by Liz Heck ("Gooch"), Kathy McGovern (little Patrick), and Lisa Schacke (Vera Charles) who were ably supported by Maureen Cosgrove, Sheila Cosgrove, Carla DiGiovine, Pat Estfan, Robert James, Robert Meza, David Olson, Hans Schacke, Bill Scully, Jeff Tease, and by the stage crew, under the direction of Mr. David Lizotte. Director Mrs. Mary Sue Palazzola commented that this was the best stage crew she has had since she has been at Bourgade. Once again Mr. Mick Olson contributed his time and talents to insure that the musical accompaniment was superb.

1) Michelle Campbell and Karen Gill stroll down the stairs showing their spirit by wearing their cowboy hats. 2) Freshmen Sue McFarland and Kim Spano attempt to teach Barbara Campbell a cheer before the Pep Assembly. 3) Juniors Cathy Heyn, Dina Bercerra, Dawn Amuso and Marie Dickman outshout Seniors at an impromptu spirit rally in Madonna Hall. 4) Senior Carla Carr observes with surprise as her compatriots do an astonishing cheer to promote spirit. 5) Junior Vince Ramella draws attention to the unusual "shades" worn by classmate Joe Chavez on Shades Day. 6) Freshmen Patty Buggy and Pam Jerome share a cupcake while comparing their spirit buttons.

Spirit Week fires up enthusiasm

Spirit Week was held September 23 through 27. Each day a particular class participated in an activity specified by Student Government. The Seniors started out the week wearing their crazy hats. Juniors came incognito on Shades Day. The Sophomores masqueraded as cowboys in their cowboy hats and Freshmen wore their favorite buttons. On their day each class decorated the campus. The Spirit Stick was awarded to the class with the most participation including clean-up.

Spirit Week evoked a new display of spirit. During the week the Junior's spirit outshown the brilliant attempts of the other classes and they were awarded the Spirit Stick by the Pep Club.

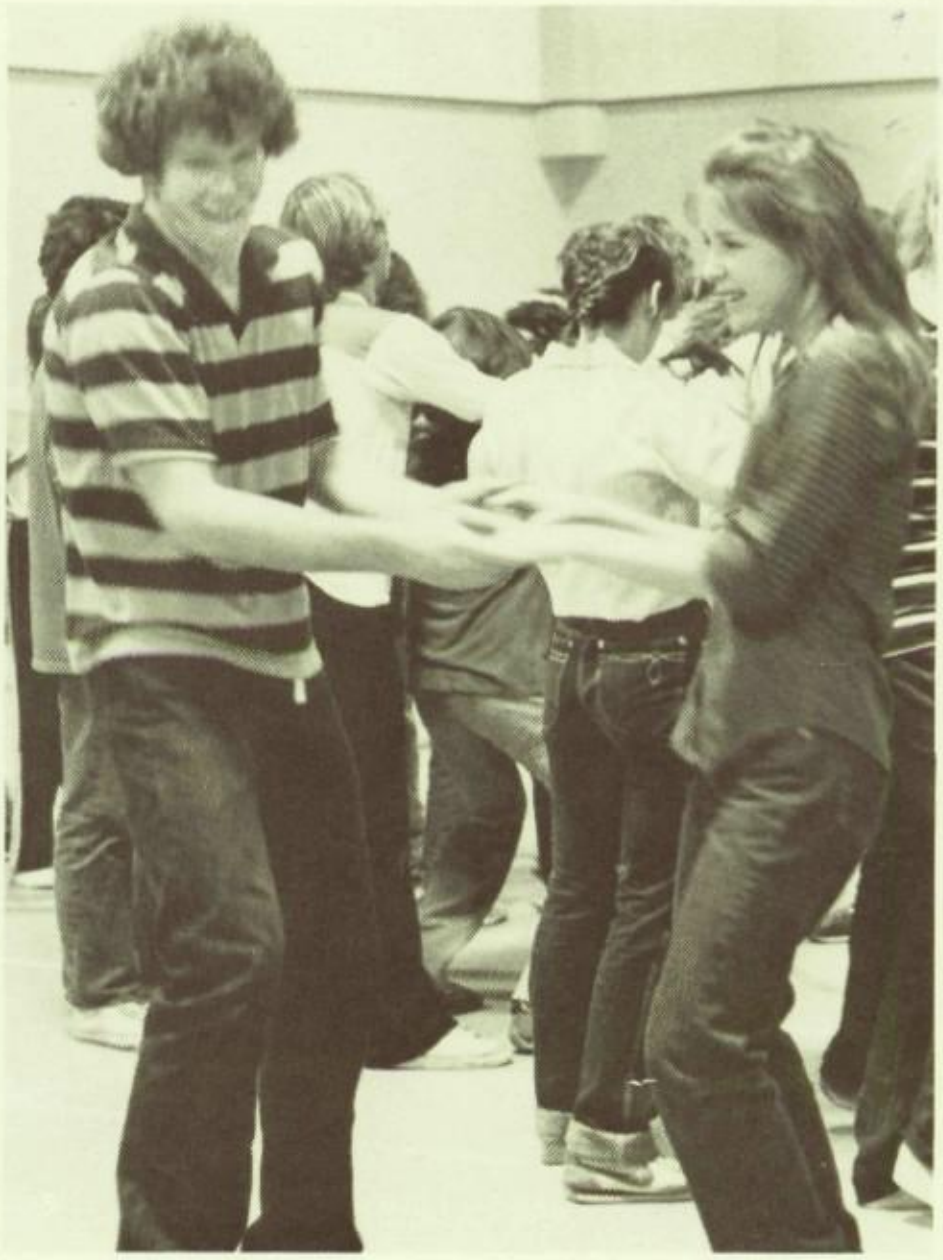
Superdance vs. MD

On February 11, Bourgade Catholic High School held its first Superdance for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Thanks to the National Honor Society, the N.A.C.I., and the Student Government, the Superdance was a great success. The students raised a pledged total of $5,926.00. Over 150 students began dancing in the Bourgade Gym at 11 a.m. To begin the Superdance activities, each participant tied a balloon around his or her ankle. The obvious goal was to step on and pop the other balloons and be the last one left with an unpopped balloon. During the last ten minutes of every hour, participating students took a break and were able to eat. The climax of the event was when Ken Coy of KPHO-TV5 News strolled into the gym. Ken Coy contributes to MDA and helps with the annual Labor Day Telethon in the Phoenix area. Mr. Coy spoke about the courage that children with MD have and how much they appreciate what Bourgade students are doing for them. He believes that this was the highest percentage of enrolled students attending a high school sponsored Superdance.



1) Freshmen Linda Polanco, Tom Erskine, and Georgina Oglesby take off to the beat of a heavy metal tune. 2) Sophomores Marty Edmondson and Rudy Cueto relax until Marty realizes it is time to start again. 3) Seniors Paul Wible and Pam Callendar dance to a softer, sadder song. 4) David Kiehle and Maria Fricano learn the meaning of a dance marathon. 5) Dan Lambros and Jennifer Johnson do some hoppin' and boppin'. 6) The students expressed emotions of happiness but also felt sadness for Jerry's kids which helped to keep them dancing.

"What a difference you've made in my life"

"What a difference you've made in my life" was the theme of the graduating class of 1982. The day the Seniors had anticipated for four years began at 10:00 a.m. on May 25 with the Baccalaureate Mass at SS. Simon and Jude Cathedral. The Most Rev. Bishop O'Brien was the main celebrant. Finally, graduation ceremonies were held, for the first time in the gym, at 7:30 p.m. Salutatorian Monica Van Der Werf welcomed the friends and parents of graduates. The uncle of graduate Paul Wible, the Most Rev. Robert F. Sanchez, Archbishop of Sante Fe, addressed the graduates as the commencement speaker. The Senior Slide Show, produced by Mr. Bruce Cater, highlighted the evening. Vice-Principal, Mrs. Patricia Scully presented the graduates as Bishop O'Brien, assisted by Father Fetters, Principal, awarded the diplomas. Sally Edmondson, Valedictorian, concluded the ceremony with her farewell speech.

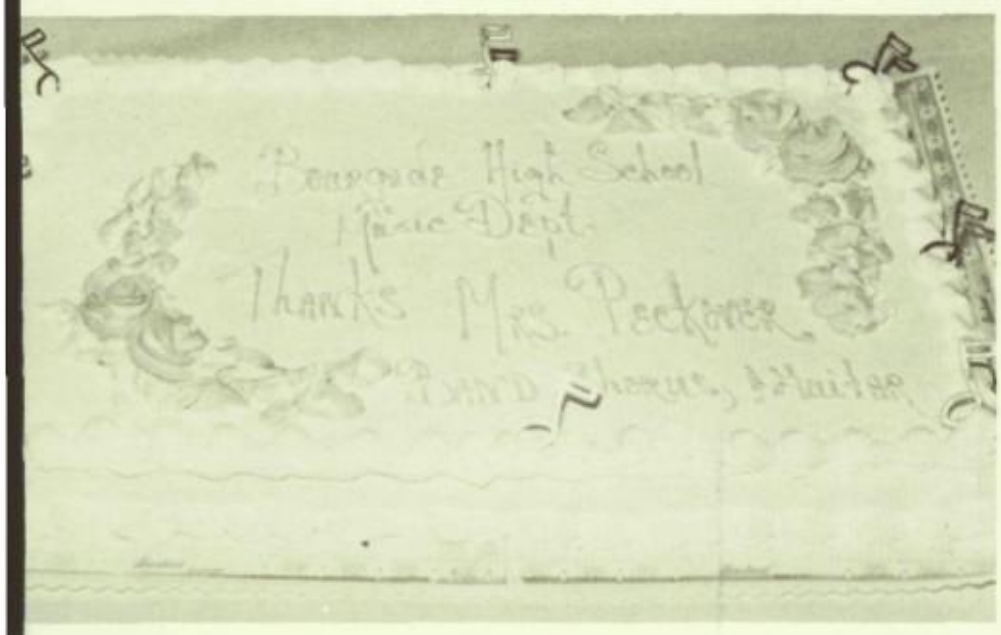
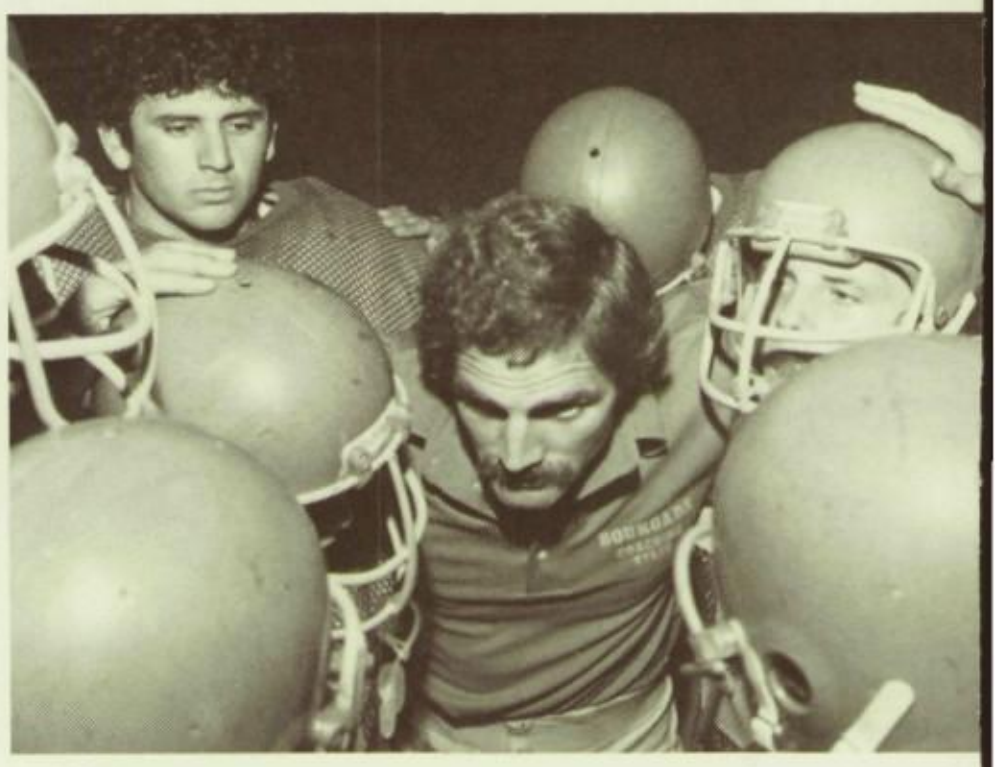
Students and Faculty munch their way from August to May



People at Bourgade found that they can have their cake and eat it too. From the Senior/Freshmen Picnic to good luck tokens for football games, from Homecoming '81 to Winterfest '81, and from Prom to Graduation, Bourgade faculty and students began to associate lunch hour with birthday parties. Faculty and students alike found that the traditional birthday bows and ribbons were replaced by decorative frosting designs and too many calories to count.



1) Kerri Mosher and Matt Hobaica embrace after receiving a great honor. 2) The atmosphere was filled with excitement as various students entered the lobby of the gym for the Homecoming dance. 3) The determined Eagles huddle to plan their strategy. 4) The Junior class's efforts are shown through their interpretation of "Old English." 5) The Sophomore float depicts the Eagle overruling the Tiger with ease. 6) Seniors and Freshmen bring home the winning float after many trying hours.

Homecoming scenario inspires victory

The Homecoming theme for 1981 was "Old English." The Eagles played a great game against Globe and were rewarded with a victory of 25-22. This was the first Homecoming victory for Bourgade since 1978.

The week of Homecoming was very hectic with quarter exams; however, all of the classes found time to show their spirit. Inspite of different interpretations, all of the floats expressed the Old English theme very well. The Senior and Freshman floats were combined for the first time and won the best overall award.

The Homecoming King and Queen titles were awarded to Matt Hobaica and Kerri Mosher at half time.

The Homecoming dance was held in the gym for the first time. Student Government transformed the gym into a romantic setting, complete with candlelit tables.

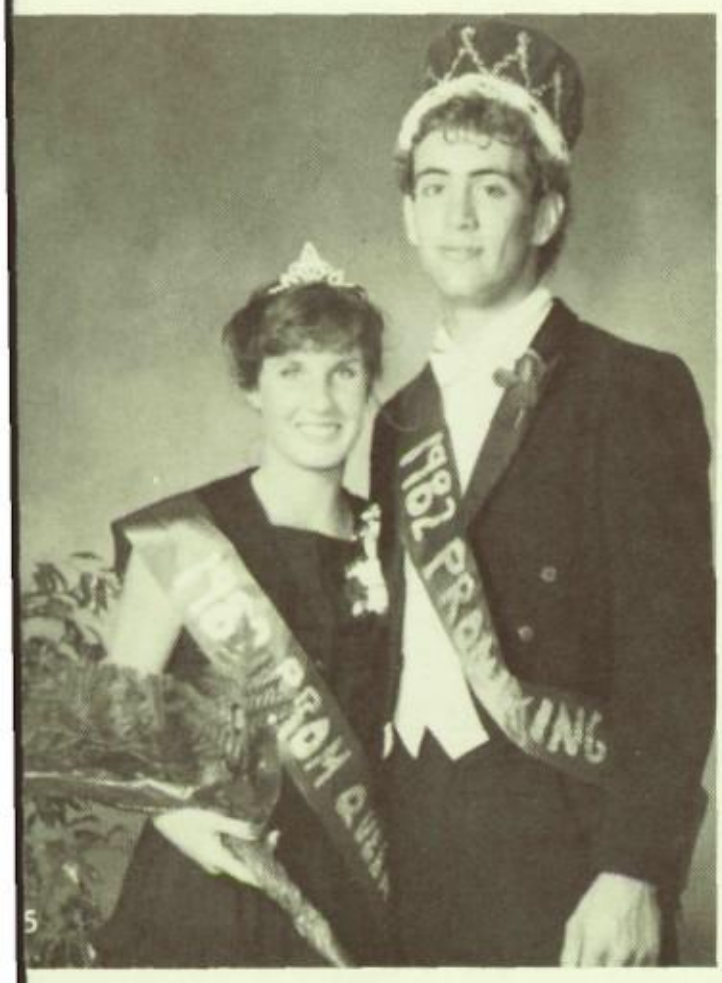
Juniors move Big Apple and Central Park to Gym

The Class of '83 chose "New York, New York" for their theme of the Junior-Senior Prom. Despite the tradition of renting a hotel room, the Juniors dared to be different. The Bourgade Gymnasium was chosen as the site for the prom.

A scaffold was raised and the ceiling was lowered. The basketball rims came down and crystal chandeliers went up. Center court was transformed into Central Park and within a week, the job was completed.

Live trees and artificial turf were donated to simulate Central Park. The rest of the floor consisted of newly shampooed carpeting, a dance floor, and stages for the two — that's right — two bands. To top it off, horse and buggy rides were available for a dollar a ride (the trip around the track was never like this when one was running laps!); however, the rides ceased later in the evening when the Juniors even added a slight rain shower to complete the New York atmosphere.

still I mean will still see each othes



Just wait and see . . .

That's what the Junior Prom Committee kept telling the skeptics who maintained that a gym could never be elegant enough for a prom. Juniors and Seniors alike refused to believe that it could be done. So while the skeptics debated attending or not, the believers worked at their dream night and day. And, on May 1st, the dream became a reality. The believers glowed with pride and the skeptics ooh'd and ah'd with amazement. The Juniors had indeed moved New York and Central Park, with all its glitter and romance, to Bourgade's Gym.

Activities fill Gym Dedication Week

Student, parent, and alumni activities filled Gym Dedication Week, November 15-21. The events consisted of basketball and volleyball tournaments for alumni, a wine and cheese party for parents, and a dance in the gym for students. A western dinner-dance featuring the "Barbed Wire Boys" was the last of the event-filled week.

On Saturday, November 21, the Mass of Dedication of the gym was celebrated. Monsignor Thomas O'Brien, who later became Bishop of Phoenix, was the principal celebrant of the Mass.

When asked what Gym Dedication meant to him and the Bourgade family, Father Don Fetters replied, "Our celebration was an occasion of thanksgiving for all the people whom that building represents: particularly those who hoped for it, those who went without it, those who worked for it, those who will use it now and in the years to come."

1) Representing the families of Bourgade, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hobaica follow Father Dan Conditt in the offertory procession. 2) Father Don Fetters and Father Joseph O'Neill assist then-Monsignor Thomas O'Brien with the celebration of the Mass. 3) Joe Cosper escorts then-Monsignor O'Brien as he blesses the gym. 4) Representing the athletes, Ivan Gelo, Robert Meza, and Joe Cosper offer gifts in the procession. 5) Andy Lambros, Mr. Mike Radigan, and Steve Walter provide musical accompaniment for the ceremony. 6) Skilled pianist, Lisa Schacke, uses her talents to complement the singing at the Mass.

Fans cheer Eagles 3-5-1 season

The progressive Eagle team began its season under the guidance of three new coaches: Coach Jim Davis, Coach Jann Contento, and Coach Jeff Jacobs. The coaches pulled the boys together, and made them play as a team. All of their hard practices turned out to be fulfilling as the mighty Eagles displayed their ability every Friday night. Fans cheered for the boys, and spiritually backed them on to their well-deserved victories of the season.

One of the Eagles' victories came against the Mingus Marauders. This game turned out to be rewarding for everyone. Individual satisfaction was gained as well as over-all perfection. Two records were set for Bourgade during this game. One of the records was set by Matt Hobaica, who reached 1,000 yards rushing during the game. Mike Rogers was the other record holder. He caught the longest touchdown pass in Bourgade's history; 65 yards. Finally, the team demonstrated their power as they shut the Marauders out with a score of 23-0. The first shutout of the year ended a season to be proud of.

'JV experience invaluable,' JC

Contrary to an 0-7 record, the J.V. Eagles had a successful season experience-wise. Coach Jann Contento was quoted as saying, "The experience that the members of the Junior Varsity team gained was invaluable." Spirit and strong determination kept the team going through the hard times. There was a terrific sense of unity built up by the team. Strong assets to the team were Joe Brunsman, Brian Myers, John Taylor, and Chris Simon.

The 1981 Freshman Football Team had a very experience-gaining year. The team supported well by the parents, cheerleaders and fellow classmates. Team leaders throughout the year were Wayne Tallman, Andy Sykes, John Dickmann, and David Cordovano. These and other members of the team kept the spirit up through the good and bad times alike. Even when the opposition would obtain scores doubling that of the Eagles, the Frosh kept their heads high and played the game through, having more importantly, their pride to leave the field with.

1) The Freshmen soon learn that high school football is more than they expected. 2) Charles Becchina appears to need a water jug more than a photographer. 3) The JV team test the abilities of their receivers early in the season. 4) "Catch me if you can!" 5) The Eagles search desperately for a fumbled ball. 6) The Golden Eagles strive for more yardage. 7) Practice, practice . . .

Varsity gains wins over losses

The 1981 season turned out to be fulfilling for the girls varsity volleyball team. They received the enjoyment of being the first varsity team to play in the new gym. The seven returning veterans and one rookie used their talented skills to have the first successful volleyball season. The team built a name that their opponents could be alarmed at. Their lengthy season came to an end gripping third place in their division.

Coach stresses belief in oneself

Throughout the 1981 season, the J.V. Volleyball team showed strong, natural ability, finishing with a 9 and 4 record. Their only losses came at the hands of Gilbert and Mingus, two consistently powerful opponents. Both meetings with Mingus and the first match against Gilbert were hard fought, and went the maximum three games.

Coach Bruce Cater feels, "If only I had been able to convince the players they were much better than just 'good,' their record could easily have been 12 and 1. This, I regret. Being content with their caliber of play and underestimating where their God-given talent could have taken them were the team's foremost weaknesses."

Coach Cater believes that those players who go on to the Varsity level will bring substantial poise, character, and maturity to the team, all necessary qualities for a successful season.

CC Girls capture 7th in State

The inspiration behind this year's Cross Country teams was Coach Michael Radigan. This year was Coach Radigan's first year as coach. His training and coaching programs were based on the principles of self-discipline and self-competition.

The girls team exhibited their discipline and competitiveness at the State meet where they took seventh place, finishing ahead of their rivals Mingus. Commenting on the girls season, Coach Radigan said, "Each of the senior girls, Doreen Gonzales, Eileen Gonzales, Kathleen Gonzales, Kitti Lambie and Carla Wrublik had been successful in the past, so they were able to remain competitive."

The boys team had a good season, improving in the last half of the season. Coach Radigan commented, "They were complimented on this improvement by other coaches."

Next year, the Cross Country teams plan to have their own track which Mr. Radigan feels will increase participation.

New look in attire for Eagle's season

The varsity basketball team acquired a new appearance this season with their new uniforms and warm-ups. The impressive look added a new dazzle to the Bourgade bench, and to its Eagle fans. The striking look stayed with the team throughout its season, but not through its record. The varsity team finished with their fizzled one win and eighteen losses.

1) Mike Rogers aggressively grabs a rebound from the backboards against their Globe opponents. 2) Dave Locher proficiently shoots for two points as an opponent unsuccessfully tries to block his shot. 3) Mr. Mike Radigan calls a timeout to plan for their triumphant strategy. 4) Manuel Chavez gracefully lays up the ball for an exciting two points.

'Winning isn't important'

Spirited playing by the Junior Varsity basketball team was shown every game, despite the score on the board. This is because the team was under the coaching of Mr. Chuck Brewer. "Winning isn't important," he would say, "but doing your best, and holding your head up is what counts." Playing power houses is always discouraging, but when the boys played, it looked like they were in a battle.

Despite brilliant efforts, the freshman often fell short of winning; and, "short" describes the whole team. Good effort was always shown by the team, but always being shorter proved to troublesome. The freshmen this year were coached by an alumni, Mike Estfan.

Rod Sisters squeeze four years into one

The Girls Varsity Basketball Team, who call themselves the "Rod Sisters," learned many new aspects of the game in one year that usually are taught over a four-year period. By the end of the season, making a complete turn-around, the team was a tough match for all opponents in conference play. Commenting on the improvement of the team, Coach Aguilera stated, "We improved mainly on the basic skill of self-discipline on and off the court. Also, our skill level as a team improved."

Comparing the team's performance at the end of the season to that at the beginning, Coach Aguilera emphasized, "The team had a higher level of intensity along with the skill and desire to do the best we could. The team's performance when compared to that of the opposition was at the same level of play, but our opponents had been using these basic skills longer than we had." Coach Aguilera believed the team played best "once they realized that quality of play was more important than out-comes or end-results."

Looking for a bright future

The Girls J.V. Basketball team had a rough season. This was the girls first year working together. The team consisted of eight girls: three sophomores and five freshman. The members of the team are Mindy Giles, Cindy Smith, Katy Oaks, Isabell Martinez, Louise Shiles, Susan Lindell, Jennifer Estfan and Theresa Villa.

1) Jennifer Estfan practices drills before her next game. 2) The look of hope and uncertainty can be easily seen in the eyes of Theresa Villa, (coach) Mrs. Coates, Isabell Martinez and Mindy Giles as their team rushes down court to sink a basket. 3) Louise Shiles, Cindy Smith, and Susan Lindell anxiously await the rebound. 4) Cindy Smith makes a great save during the Gilbert game. 5) Jennifer Estfan puts her all into each practice. 6) Susan Lindell shoots for two at the freethrow line during the game against Cactus.

Eagles bring home the Brass

This year the Golden Eagle Wrestlers brought home their first trophy in years. The Eagles attended the Scottsdale Christian Academy Invitational and defeated such teams as Scottsdale Christian Academy, Phoenix Christian, and Phoenix Indian School and went on to receive the first place trophy.

The Eagles ended their regular season with a record of 2-5. Great seasons were shown by Joe Brunsman, with a record of 10-5, and Arnold Soto, who wrestled a record of 7-5. Both Joe and Arnold went to the State AA Wrestling Championship and ended up placing fourth.

1) The Eagles strive for the few extra points needed to win the final meet of the season. 2) Matt Hobaica guarantees Coach Frank Aliano that he is ready to take on his next opponent. 3) Numerous members of the Bourgade student body and faculty cheer the Eagles on to a hopeful win over Phoenix Christian. 4) In the final match of the evening, this Golden Eagle wrestler prepares to make his move. 5) This unidentified wrestler appears to be on the verge of escape. 6) The referee signals a takedown by Mark Hoffman. 7) Rick Quevedo concentrates deeply as he attempts his counter – move.

Down falling season ends with a jump

The 1982 baseball season didn't start out as well as many anticipated. The dreams of holding a divisional playoff spot, or even a conference win seemed so far from reality. One of the hopes was shattered, while the other held strong to the very last game of the year.

The team packed their bags for their long bus trip to Maurauder territory. The Eagle's jumped on top fast with a 16-4 lead, aided by Rich Lukaszewski's home run, and a three run homer by Mike Rogers. The Maurader's managed to gather an extra eight runs, but that wasn't enough to take away Bourgade's only conference win. The victory added achievement to a very long and frustrating season.

Frosh possess talent

Under the coaching of Mr. Mike Radigan, the Junior Varsity baseball team won a couple of exciting games. Beating Phoenix Christian and Peoria proved to be stimulating, but the biggest win came when they beat Globe for their only conference victory. Their main help came from Tim Beerling, who led the team with his fantastic performances in pitching and hitting.

The Freshmen, despite all the acclaimed talent they possessed, had a rather disappointing season. Not winning a game all season proved to be the disappointment. Coaches John Aguilara, and Jim Callender had hoped for a better season. They did not expect to beat Corona or Gilbert, but they did expect a couple of wins sometime during their season. The team was led by Scott Damico's and Dave Cordovano's pitching, and also by the mighty hitting by Pete Woods.

1) Catcher Danny Morquecho grabs the throw from left field and attempts to tag the Gerard base runner. 2) Victor DiGiovine receives a throw from the short stop, and successfully puts a Gerard rival out. 3) Danny Morquecho makes a valiant effort for the tag at home. 4) Andy Sykes gives Victor DiGioine a word of encouragement as the boys finish another inning. 5) Steve Kiszczak strokes the ball into left field for a single.

A successful year for track

The Track Team did very well this year. Five girls went to State. These girls are Doreen Gonzales who could not compete because of injury, Cathleen Gonzales who took 10th place in the 2 mile run; Eileen Gonzales who took 4th place in the 800 meter run and the 1600 meter run; Pam Callender who took 8th place in the 200 hurdles and the 110 hurdles; Cindy Callender went to State but did not place. The boys did not do as well but had much fun in the "Fish Club." The team consisted of twenty-three people: Coach Jann Contento, Cindy Callender, Pam Callender, Mindy Giles, Karen Davis, Karen Gill, Eileen Gonzales, Doreen Gonzales, Cathleen Gonzales, Theresa Gonzales, Susan Lindell, Linda Polanco, Joe Bowers, Martin Contreras, John Dickmann, Mark Evans, Mike Fitzpatrick, Todd Kissel, Rick Quevedo, Mike Salidino, John Glulak, Guy Vaccaro and Manuel Chavez. The managers were Theresa Ritoch and Malou Bowers.

Girls go to State

The Girls Softball Team went to State May 13, at Diablo Stadium in Tempe. They lost to Mirana by one point. Ms. Tymrak, the girls' coach raved, "This year's team did a tremendous job. They stayed together to perform as a total unit." The girls really did do a fantastic job for they were one of the top eight teams in the state. Their conference record was 8-3 and their overall record was 12-8. Mr. Ed Trejo helped coach. He spent his spare time and energy with the team and gave them his all.

1) Karen Bunjovac makes a spectacular catch, but the Mingus player was still safe. 2) Julie Estfan makes a funny face as she is safe, standing at home plate. 3) Kris Rathke sprints for first base. 4) Jeanne Bauer makes her stand as she waits for the pitcher to throw her a fast ball. 5) DeeDee Conchalar gets back on first as Joy Gerick was thrown out.

Girls place second in Regionals

The highlight of the girls tennis team this year was going to Regionals where they placed second. Lynn Rabe went on to State where she came in third in girls singles. Brenda Angerer/Shelly Jones and Peggy Prenovost/Laurie Ritchot went to State as the Doubles teams, but they didn't place. Girls tennis coach Mrs. Salidino commented, "The most improved players were Laurie Ritchot (varsity) and Cheryl Elam (JV); the most valuable players, Lynn Rabe (varsity) and Shelly Jones (JV)." The boys tennis team had a losing year. Despite their losses, the captain of the tennis team Robert Meza felt the team had progressed. Keith Tanita, the new boys tennis coach, helped unite the team.

A new trend initiated

Student Government, sponsored by Mrs. Palsma, successfully put on a Super Dance for Muscular Dystrophy. They also sponsored all the regular Friday night dances and semi-formal Christmas dance.

Sponsored by Sister Frances, the National Honor Society, in conjunction with Student Government, planned the activities for the Super Dance. As a service project, they provided clothing and food for a needy family. Also this year, they produced and sold all the football programs.

well melissa I suppose

This year the J.V. Cheerline was very successful in their fund-raising event. In the beginning of the year, the girls planned a bowl-a-thon. This went over quite well, netting the girls over one thousand dollars. The way the bowl-a-thon worked was that anyone who wanted to bowl could and they were sponsored for each pin. Following their acceptance to the cheerline, the girls attended a cheer camp in eastern Arizona. They took a city bus to Thatcher, Arizona and stayed for three days. The girls brought back one superior and two excellent ribbons along with the spirit stick.

The Freshman Cheerline this year consisted of six girls: Angela Cavallo, Kim Spano, Joyce Chaney, Christine McMann, Chris Libuscowski, and Debbie Writter. The line this year was very spirited and enthusiastic. The girls kept up their support for the boys even after a defeat. The girls tried to perform at all of the freshman football and basketball games. They even showed their school spirit by cheering at some of the girls sports.

Varsity Cheer and Pom

Demonstrating their Bourgade pride at the Kachina Camp at Eastern Arizona College in Thatcher, the Varsity Cheerline brought back the spirit stick, megaphone and three superior awards. They performed throughout the football and basketball seasons proving their leadership and enthusiasm to the fans. At pep assemblies they promoted school spirit and encouraged students and faculty to attend games. During the year, they worked together to make posters and run-throughs for games.

this is it so

This year's Varsity Pom Line was on a trial basis because of the collapse of last year's line. They performed very well and remained together to entertain the fans through both the football and basketball seasons. This will be the last Pom Line which Bourgade will see due to lack of funds, a sponsor, and a general interest.

Pom sees end of line

1). From top: Cathy Murphy, Wendy Davies, Stephanie Aguirre, Gretchen Reachmack, Cindy Trejo, Sheila Cosgrove, and Maureen Cosgrove. 3) While anxiously awaiting the Varsity Football team's bursting out of the locker room and onto the field, Bonnie Haddock and Stephanie Aguirre confidently rest on the shoulders of Gretchen Reachmack and Junior Pat Locher. 4) Senior Cheerleaders Cathy Murphy and Gretchen Reachmack easily perform a double stunt at their last home game. 5) Sophomore Janet Lessard shows pride in ending a perfectly performed routine at the first home game in the new gym. 6) Varsity Pom Line, From top: Suzanne Gagnon, Laurie Ritchot, Ann Salisbury, Janet Lessard, Roxanne Richards, Felicia Concholar, Kelly Clark, and Katrina Concholar. 7) Kelly Clark laughingly rides on the shoulders of Eagle Mascot, Dee Dee Concholar, minutes after a successful pom performance.

Matmaids/Band

Throughout the year, the matmaid line carried on various activities supporting the wrestling team: writing weekly letters of encouragement to each individual, painting numerous posters, and making care boxes for the invitationals. For fund raisers the matmaids sold lamenated posters and crystal jewelry.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Harriet Peckover, this year's band performed at pep assemblies, football games, and at graduation. The band, displaying their musical talents, presented a spring program for their parents and families.

Eight days a week

Producing a yearbook takes time, but time isn't half of it: it requires creativity (which some had to learn); patience (which no one had); time (which there's never enough of); and cooperation (which was managed — barely).

The staff fielded accusations and questions: 'Yearbook, that's just an easy credit.' 'Do you ever do anything in there?' 'Are there any pictures of me this year?' 'She's always in the yearbook!' And the inevitable question, 'When are the yearbooks coming in?' The fact is the amount of time spent to produce two pages can take weeks: taking pictures, drawing layouts, getting information, selecting, printing and cropping pictures, writing and typing copy. Yearbooking requires dedication and working eight days a week, each twenty-five hours long.

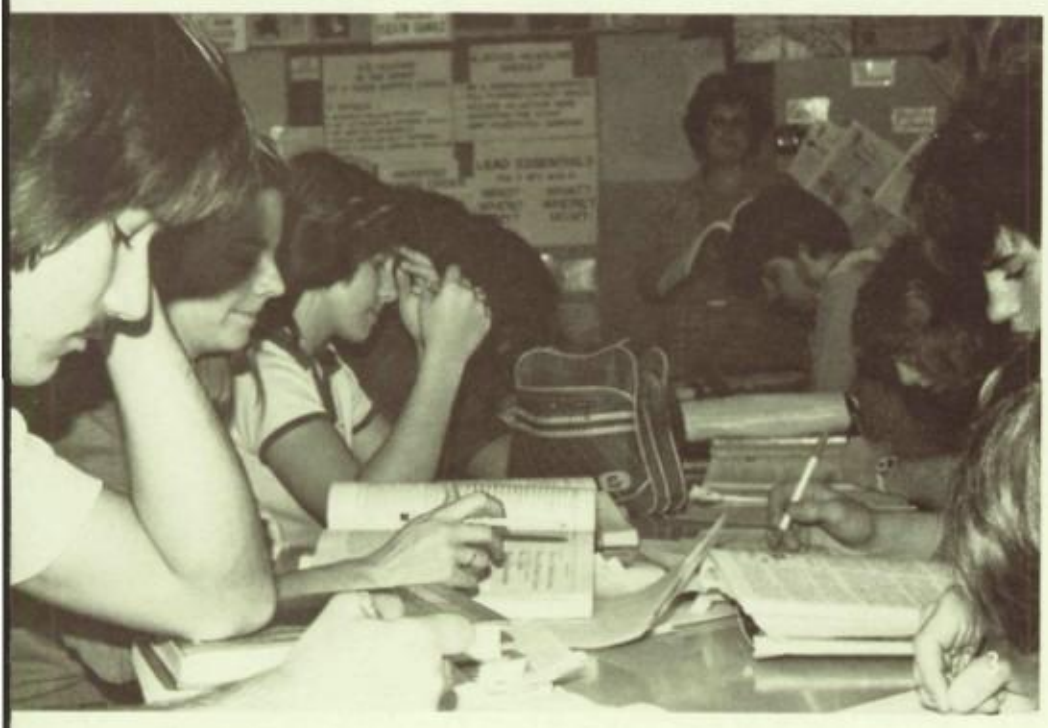
Newspaper

Bourgade students pay for news

Putting out eight issues of the Bourgade Flyer requires hard work. The staff worked before, during and after school to meet deadlines. In addition to the normal duties of the staff, newspaper students were faced with severe money problems. The staff resorted to selling the Flyer for ten cents a copy, holding car washes, selling candy and carnations and Christmas decorations. Their diligence netted them $1800 which enabled them to put out several multiple-page editions.

Not having enough to do, newspaper and yearbook staff members took up a new cause this year: sponsoring Bourgade's First Annual Academic Bowl. Led by Quill and Scroll members MaryAnne Kilfoyle, president, Sally Edmondson and Debbie Ash of the Anchor, and Gigi Holtz of the Flyer, both staffs developed a sense of camaraderie lacking in previous years. Recognizing the efforts to attain journalistic excellence and their dedication and hard work, Quill and Scroll inducted a record twelve members on May 13th.

At the formal induction ceremonies, guest speaker Mr. Bill Burke, owner of Filteray of Arizona and former stringer for several Arizona newspapers, emphasized the primary responsibility of journalists to find and accurately present facts.



1) Julie edits copy for the next edition of the Flyer. 2) Bobby Sample. Lauren Danik and Chris Simon do some research for a story for Newspaper class. 3) John Hortareas, Kelli Howard, Penny Marshell, Bobby Sample, Lauren Danik, and Chris Simon attempt to find answer to a puzzling question posed by Miss Heath. 4) Editor Bonnie Haddock works after hours to make the first deadline.

CARDINAL AWARD RECIPIENT

MaryAnne Kilfoyle

1) Steve Walter, Robert Meza, Jeannine Williams, and Chris Hardin are recognized for their hard work throughout the year as Senior Class Officers. 2) Mr. Larry Dukerich, proud father, displays his new daughter while introducing the slide show at the Senior Dinner. 3) John Lee humbly receives one of the many Senior "gag" awards. 4) Father Timothy Tepsic and Mr. Bernie Angerer spent many hours creating a country-fair atmosphere for the Senior Dinner. 5) Seniors Debbie Ash and Mike Rogers modestly accept the award for best couple of the year. 6) During the Senior Dinner, the slide show is watched intensely by the Mosher family.

I'm glad we became friends this year
even though we aren't really close
I value your friendships very much
I really hope we can become close if you want to that is! your friend,

Melissa,

Hi How's it going?
I dont remember to much but I guess since Im soooo smart and soooooo intelligent I can manage. Lets see. I know ru and Shelly dose you alot about your "milky Boyfriends" like mike, David, Dave. Victor, Edward ect... But its just a joke. I hope you dont take it the wrong way. well you're very pretty + nice. Stay sweet.
Love ya. P.S. want to take Home Ec
Sherry :) AGAIN!!

Melissa
Hi well it was weird Having you in Class when you never likes it
Homecoming I really never like maybe I'll stick up for Linda but next year.
P.S. was great see you on the prom.
Come "85".
back
and visit us
if you not here next year!

Melissa,
I am glad that we got to be good friends this year and also in some of the same classes together. Thanks for being such a Real Friend!!!

Dear Mel, (Weda) (ha, (joke)

I am sorry that you are [redacted] a year sure isn't long to have a friend like you. [redacted] leaving, because your always their when I need someone to talk to or just a shoulder to cry on. We have become very close friends and we have great time when were together, I hope that when you go to "Drever" you won't forget me, because I sure as "hell" won't forget ya, I sure [redacted] am going to miss riding the bus with you and it sure isn't going to be the same around the [redacted] school. I hope you and Edwardo stay toge forever, just like I am going to say with Jesse. I am going to stop writting because I am very sad! But always remember were friends forever. LOVE Ya Always KEEP IN touch 276
